

This original tax statement is issued by the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) and contains information you will need to determine if any of the railroad retirement payments made to you in 2009 are taxable. You must use the amounts from both tax statements to determine your total taxable RRB income. Payments and repayments resulting from railroad retirement annuity adjustments are shown on your tax statements and may be fully or partially taxable. This is true whether adjustments result in net amounts due or net overpayments which you are asked to repay, and whether any overpayments are recovered or waived. All the information shown on the tax statements is sent to the United States Internal Revenue Service (IRS). You may receive more than one tax statement for 2009. When only one type of tax statement pertains to you, the other tax statement type is void (blank) and contains the caption "THIS FORM IS NOT REQUIRED FOR YOUR 2009 TAXES." If you have questions about this form contact the RRB, U.S. Consulate/Embassy, or visit the RRB website at http://www_rrb.gov. RRB offices are generally open from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday; call 1-877-772-5772 and select option "5". If you received social security benefits in 2009 that were paid by the RRB, you will receive a Form SSA-1042S and Notice 703 from the United States Social Security Administration (SSA). If you do not receive the SSA forms, contact your nearest SSA office, U.S. Consulate/Embassy or call the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. You may also visit the SSA on the Internet at <http://www.ssa.gov>.

EXPLANATION OF ITEMS ON FORM RRB-1042S

Box 3 - Gross Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid in 2009 - This is the total amount of the SSEB portion of tier 1 benefits paid to you in 2009. It includes any SSEB benefits paid in 2009 that were for prior years.

Box 4 - Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Repaid to RRB in 2009 - This is the total amount of SSEB benefits you repaid to the RRB in 2009. It includes any SSEB benefits you repaid in 2009 that were for prior years. You may have repaid a SSEB benefit by returning a payment, by making a cash refund, or by having an amount withheld from your annuity for overpayment recovery purposes.

Box 5 - Net Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid in 2009 - This total is the amount in Box 3 minus the amount in Box 4. A figure in parenthesis is a negative amount. A negative amount means you repaid the RRB more than you received or were credited with receiving in 2009. If you received more than one Form RRB-1042S or Form SSA-1042S for 2009, a negative figure in Box 5 of one form can be used to offset a positive figure in Box 5 of another form. To see if any part of the SSEB is taxable, refer to IRS Publication 915, Social Security and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits.

Box 6 - Workers' Compensation Offset in 2009 - This figure is for informational purposes only. This is the amount of any workers' compensation deducted from your SSEB payments. This amount is included in the amount in Box 3.

Box 7 - Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid for 2008 - This is the amount of SSEB that was paid in 2009 and due for 2008. This amount is included in the amount in Box 3.

Box 8 - Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid for 2007 - This is the amount of SSEB that was paid in 2009 and due for 2007. This amount is included in the amount in Box 3.

Box 9 - Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier 1 Paid for Years Prior to 2007 - This total is the amount of SSEB that was paid in 2009 and due for a period prior to 2007. This amount is included in the amount shown in Box 3. Any tier 1 benefit paid for a period prior to 1986 is treated as SSEB.

For information about SSEB and social security payments and taxability, and Forms RRB-1042S and SSA-1042S, refer to IRS Publication 915, Social Security and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits. SSEB payments shown on Form RRB-1042S are treated in the same manner as social security benefits for U.S. Federal income tax purposes.

EXPLANATION OF ITEMS ON FORM RRB-1099-R

Box 3 - Employee Contributions - This is the amount of railroad retirement payroll taxes paid by the employee that exceeds the amount that would have been paid in social security payroll taxes if the employee's railroad service had been covered under the Social Security Act. The IRS considers the employee contribution amount (EEC) an employee's cost or investment in any contributory [Non-Social Security Equivalent Benefit (NSSEB) and Tier 2] amounts paid. Any EEC amount shown is the entire amount attributable to a railroad account number and must be shared by all annuitants eligible to use it. The amount shown is the latest amount reported which may have increased or decreased from a previous Form RRB-1099-R. A change in the EEC amount may affect the nontaxable portion of your contributory amounts paid. You may need to recompute the nontaxable amount and/or file original or amended income tax return(s) using the EEC amount reported on this Form RRB-1099-R. If this box is blank, it means that your contributory amount paid and total gross paid are fully taxable. Refer to IRS Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income, and IRS Publication 939, General Rule for Pensions and Annuities. For more information on the tax treatment and how to use the employee contribution amount, expected return, and the IRS actuarial tables contact the IRS or your tax preparer for assistance.

Box 4 - Contributory Amount Paid - This is the amount in this box is the gross amount of any NSSEB and Tier 2 benefits paid in 2009, less any NSSEB and Tier 2 repayments made in 2009 that are attributed to 2009. Any NSSEB and Tier 2 repayments made in 2009 for an earlier year or for an unknown year are shown in Box 8. The contributory amount paid (NSSEB and/or Tier 2) may be partially taxable or fully taxable depending on the presence and use of the employee contribution amount. The amount in Box 4 is the total contributory pension paid for 2009 and may be used under General Rule provisions to compute a nontaxable portion of NSSEB and Tier 2 payments. For more information on the tax treatment of the contributory amount paid, see IRS Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income and/or IRS Publication 939, General Rule for Pensions and Annuities.

Box 5 - Vested Dual Benefit - This is the gross amount of VDB paid in 2009, less any VDB repayments made in 2009 that are attributed to 2009. This is a noncontributory pension amount and is fully taxable for U.S. Federal income tax purposes. VDB repayments made in 2009 for an earlier year or for an unknown year are shown in Box 8.

Box 6 - Supplemental Annuity - This is the gross amount of supplemental annuity paid in 2009, less any supplemental annuity repayments made in 2009 that are attributed to 2009. This is a noncontributory pension amount and is fully taxable for U.S. Federal income tax purposes. Supplemental annuity repayments made in 2009 for an earlier year or for an unknown year are shown in Box 8.

The amounts shown on Form RRB-1099-R are the pension annuity components. Contributory Amount Paid. Explanations for each box item on Form RRB-1099-R are shown above. For more information about NSSEB, Tier 2, VDB, and supplemental annuity benefits, pension taxability, and Form RRB-1099-R, refer to IRS Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income. Any amounts shown on your Form RRB-1099-R are considered a "normal distribution". Use distribution code "7" if you are asked for a distribution code for those amounts. Railroad retirement payments shown on Form RRB-1099-R are treated as private pensions for U.S. Federal income tax purposes.

Our records indicate that you are being taxed as a nonresident alien of the United States. A nonresident alien is an individual who is neither a citizen nor resident of the United States. If you currently reside outside of the United States and have not furnished the RRB with your citizenship and residence information for tax purposes, contact the RRB to obtain and file Form RRB-1001, Nonresident Questionnaire. Form RRB-1001 may also be used to claim reduced U.S. Federal income tax withholding (0% or 15%) under any tax treaty in effect between the United States and your country of residence for tax purposes.
